The charge to the AP is to make recommendations to the Council relative to the design and implementation of management measures to improve private anglers’ access to fishing opportunities in federal waters, improve recreational data collection programs, and reduce discards.