Recreational Gulf of Mexico Red Grouper Fishing Season is Extended

NOAA Fisheries is implementing an in-season adjustment to the red grouper recreational fishing season that changes the closure date from September 16, 2014, to October 4, 2014, based upon updated landings. With this adjustment, the red grouper recreational season will close at 12:01 a.m., local time, October 4, 2014 and remain closed until January 1, 2015, unless changed in subsequent rulemaking.

The recreational red grouper daily bag limit will remain at three fish per day.

This bulletin provides only a summary of the existing regulations. Full regulations can be found in the Federal Register.

About Gulf of Mexico Fishery Management Council

The Gulf of Mexico Fishery Management Council is one of eight regional Fishery Management Councils established by the Fishery Conservation and Management Act of 1976. The Council prepares fishery management plans, which are designed to manage fishery resources within the 200-mile limit of the Gulf of Mexico.
