Gulf of Mexico Fishery Management Council Convenes its Red Drum Special Working Group

The Gulf of Mexico Fishery Management Council's Red Drum special working group will meet July 13, 2010, via webinar, and will discuss whether an acceptable biological catch can be determined for red drum in state and federal waters based on currently available data.

The meeting will begin at 10:00 a.m. Eastern Standard Time and will end no later than 2:00 p.m. To register for the webinar, please visit the Council's website at www.gulfcouncil.org. Directions on how to register will be posted one week prior to the webinar. Copies of the agenda and other related materials can be obtained by calling 813-348-1630, or by visiting the Council's FTP site - <ftp://ftp.gulfcouncil.org> - open the folder titled KB, then open the folder titled Red Drum.

Although other non-emergency issues not on the agenda may come before the working group, in accordance with the M-SFCMA, those issues may not be the subject of formal action during this meeting. Actions of the working group are restricted to those issues identified in the agenda.

This webinar is accessible to people with disabilities. For assistance with any of our webinars, contact Tina O'Hern at the Council at least five working days prior to the meeting.

The Gulf of Mexico Fishery Management Council is one of eight regional fishery management councils established by the Magnuson-Stevens Act. The Council prepares fishery management plans designed to manage fishery resources in the federal waters of the Gulf of Mexico.
